UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA WESTERN DIVISION

PACIFIC LIGHT PRODUCTIONS
INC., a California corporation,

Plaintiff,

vs.

PRISM FITNESS GROUP LLC, a
Wisconsin limited liability corporation,

Defendant

CASE NO.: 17-cv-3942

COMPLAINT FOR TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT,
DECLARATORY RELIEF AND RELATED CLAIMS

[DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY]

Plaintiff Pacific Light Productions Inc., by and through its counsel, Avyno Law P.C., for its complaint against Defendant Prism Fitness Group LLC alleges as follows:

PARTIES

2 1. Plaintiff Pacific Light Productions, Inc. (“PLP”) is a California
3 corporation with its principal place of business at 1633 5th Street, Manhattan 4 Beach, CA 90266. PLP is engaged in the development of fitness and therapeutic 5 equipment and has made, sold and/or licensed such products for sale.

6 2. Defendant Prism Fitness Group, LLC (“Prism”) is a Wisconsin
7 limited liability company, with its principal place of business at 303 Bruce St., 8 Verona, Wisconsin 53595. Prism manufactures and sells fitness and therapeutic 9 equipment and accessories.

10 3. Upon information and belief, Defendant is a limited liability company 11 domiciled in Wisconsin, organized under the laws of that state, and maintains its 12 principal business office in Wisconsin. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant has 13 committed the various infringing acts (alleged below) which were expressly aimed 14 at Plaintiff, a California domiciliary, and that jurisdiction over them is further 15 established by (1) their purposeful activities or transactions with California, or 16 residents thereof, by which they purposefully avail themselves of the privilege of 17 conducting activities in this forum; (2) the fact that the claims alleged herein arise 18 out of or relate to their forum-related activities; and (3) the fact that the exercise of 19 jurisdiction is reasonable, or comports with fair play and substantial justice.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21 4. This is an action arising under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 22 1125(a). This Court has federal question jurisdiction over these claims pursuant to 23 15 U.S.C. Section 1121 (action arising under the Lanham Act); 28 U.S.C. Section 24 1331 (federal question); 28 U.S.C. Section 1338(a) (any Act of Congress relating 25 to trademarks); and 28 U.S.C. Section 1338(b) (action asserting claim of unfair 26 competition joined with a substantial and related claim under the trademark laws).

27 5. This Court has jurisdiction over the state law claims in this action 28 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1367(a) because the state law claims are so related to

1 the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive 2 from a common nucleus of operative facts.

3 6. Based on information and belief this Court has specific personal 4 jurisdiction over the Defendant because it has purposefully committed, and 5 continues to commit acts within the State of California, the acts from which these 6 claims arise. The Court also has general personal jurisdiction over Defendant as it 7 conducts continuous, systematic, and routine business within the State of 8 California and the County of Los Angeles.

9 7. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Central 10 District of California pursuant to U.S.C. Sections 1391(b) and 1391(c) because a 11 substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in this District.

12
13 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

14 8. Plaintiff PLP is engaged in the development of fitness and therapeutic 15 equipment and has made, sold and/or licensed such products for sale throughout 16 the United States.

17 9. On November 10, 2004, Plaintiff PLP filed an intent-to-use trademark 18 application with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) for the 19 mark SMARTROLLER® in connection with manually operated exercise
20 equipment in International Class 28.

21 10. Plaintiff PLP began using the mark on June 30, 2005 and, upon 22 submitting evidence of use of the mark to the USPTO, the mark matured to 23 registration on the Principal Register on April 10, 2007. A true and correct copy 24 of this registration record taken from the USPTO Trademark Electronic Search 25 System (TESS) is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

26 11. Since at least as early as June 30, 2005, Plaintiff PLP and/or its 27 licensees have continually used the distinctive trademark SMARTROLLER® to 28 market, sell and identify its fitness and therapeutic equipment, without interruption.

1 A true and correct copy of PLP's equipment bearing the SMARTROLLER[®]
2 trademark is attached as Exhibit B.

3 12. In August 2009, Plaintiff PLP entered into an exclusive licensing 4 agreement with OPTP, Inc. to distribute and manufacture its exercise equipment 5 using the registered trademark SMARTROLLER[®].

6 13. In 2010, Plaintiff PLP's SMARTROLLER[®] equipment was offered 7 for sale in OPTP's November 2010 catalog, which is distributed nationwide, as 8 well as internationally. A true and correct copy of the relevant pages of the OPTP 9 2010 catalog is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

10 14. Since 2010, OPTP has continuously sold, without interruption, the 11 SMARTROLLER[®] equipment both online at www.optp.com and through its mail 12 order catalog.

13 15. On January 15, 2016, after Plaintiff PLP learned that its 14 SMARTROLLER[®] trademark registration had inadvertently been cancelled on 15 November 15, 2013 (see Exhibit A), Plaintiff PLP reapplied for registration for the 16 mark SMARTROLLER[®] in connection with manually operated exercise
17 equipment in International Class 28. The registration was granted on August 30, 18 2016 as US Reg. No. 5,030,925. A true and correct copy of the registration 19 certificate for US Reg. No. 5,030,925 is attached as Exhibit D.

20 16. Shortly before the second registration date (i.e., August 30, 2016) of 21 the SMARTROLLER[®] trademark (U.S. Registration No. 5,030,925), it came to 22 Plaintiff PLP's attention that Defendant Prism had been using the mark 23 SMARTROLLER in connection with fitness and exercise equipment, namely, a 24 foam roller.

25 17. Prism offers its foam roller for sale bearing the name 26 SMARTROLLER on its website at www.prismfitnessgroup.com as well as on 27 merchant web sites such as Amazon.com. A true and correct copy of the product 28 SMARTROLLER, as sold by Prism on www.prismfitnessgroup.com is attached

1 hereto as Exhibit E. While the website advertises the product as SMART 2 ROLLER and/or SMART FOAM ROLLER, the Prism product bears the mark 3 SMARTROLLER as one word.

4 18. In fact, a search of the term “Smart Roller” on Amazon.com yields 5 Plaintiff’s and Defendant’s foam rollers for sale side-by-side. A true and correct 6 copy of the search results from Amazon.com of the term “Smart Roller” is attached 7 hereto as Exhibit F.

8 19. While it appears that on Amazon.com, Prism is now advertising its 9 product as “Smart Foam Roller” (see Exhibit F), images of the Prism product still 10 bear the trademark SMARTROLLER. Upon information and belief, the Prism 11 product is still sold bearing the mark SMARTROLLER.

12 20. Both Plaintiff PLP’s and Defendant Prism’s rollers are sold under 13 substantially the same name, are advertised for use as fitness/exercise and 14 therapeutic/rehabilitation equipment, are for sale to the same target market (general 15 consumers, gyms or fitness centers and physical therapist or physical therapy 16 centers), and are sold through the same channels of trade (on-line, catalog sales and 17 direct marketing to target consumers) (see Exhibit A and Exhibit E).

18 21. Both Plaintiff PLP’s and Defendant Prism’s rollers are sold for similar 19 price points. In particular, Plaintiff PLP’s roller is sold for $41.95 on Amazon.com 20 and Defendant Prism’s roller is sold for $43.72 on Amazon.com (see Exhibit F).

21 22. On August 25, 2016, Plaintiff PLP sent Defendant Prism a cease and 22 desist letter asking that Prism cease and desist from using the mark 23 SMARTROLLER® on any goods and services related to exercise equipment. A 24 true and correct copy of the cease and desist letter sent to Prism Fitness Group on 25 August 25, 2016 is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

26 23. On October 27, 2016, Defendant Prism’s counsel, Stafford 27 Rosenbaum LLP, responded to Plaintiff PLP’s cease and desist letter by alleging 28 that Prism had adopted the SMARTROLLER logo prior to PLP’s registration date

1 for the mark SMARTROLLER®. Specifically, in the response letter, Prism's 2 counsel stated that "Prism has used the SMART ROLLER logo on products sold 3 across the United States and Canada since August, 2013." A true and correct copy 4 of Defendant Prism's counsel response to Plaintiff PLP's cease and desist letter is 5 attached hereto as Exhibit H.

6 24. A review of the archived versions of www.prismfitnessgroup.com on 7 the Wayback Machine Internet archives reveals that Defendant Prism offered its 8 roller bearing the mark SMARTROLLER for sale in its 2013 catalog which was 9 available for download on its website at least as early as January 27, 2013. A copy 10 of the January 27, 2013 version of www.prismfitnessgroup.com showing 11 Defendant Prism's 2013 catalog available for download taken from the Wayback 12 Machine Internet archives is attached hereto as Exhibit I.

13 25. Prism's 2013 digital catalog, which was available for download on 14 www.prismfitnessgroup.com at least as early as January 27, 2013 offered its roller 15 bearing the mark SMARTROLLER for sale. A copy of Defendant Prism's 2013 16 digital catalog is attached hereto as Exhibit J.

17 26. Prior to 2013, a review of the archived versions of 18 www.prismfitnessgroup.com on the Wayback Machine Internet archives further 19 reveals that Defendant Prism did not offer any product under the name 20 SMARTROLLER for sale on its website on April 24, 2012. A copy of the April 21 24, 2012 version of www.prismfitnessgroup.com showing Defendant Prism's 22 products for sale, as taken from the Wayback Machine Internet archives is attached 23 hereto as Exhibit K.

24 27. Defendant Prism adopted the mark SMARTROLLER in connection 25 with fitness and exercise equipment in 2013 while Plaintiff PLP's had a valid 26 registration for the mark SMARTROLLER® in connection with the same goods.

27 28. Plaintiff PLP's federal registration (Reg. No. 3,228,554) for the mark 28 SMARTROLLER® was inadvertently cancelled on November 15, 2013 (after

1 Defendant Prism's adoption and use of the mark SMARTROLLER) due to 2 registrant's failure to file a Section 8 or 15 Affidavit with the USPTO. A true and 3 correct copy of the TESS record for Reg. No. 3,228,554 is attached hereto as 4 Exhibit A.

5 29. Defendant Prism had constructive knowledge of Plaintiff PLP's claim 6 to exclusive rights to use the mark SMARTROLLER® in connection with exercise 7 and fitness equipment throughout the United States at the time that Defendant 8 Prism adopted its SMARTROLLER mark in connection with exercise and fitness 9 equipment.

10 30. Upon information and belief, Prism adopted the use of the mark 11 SMARTROLLER in bad faith, having had constructive knowledge of Plaintiff's 12 registration for the mark SMARTROLLER®.

13 31. In 2013, in addition to adopting the mark SMARTROLLER in 14 connection with its foam roller, Defendant Prism also adopted marks starting with 15 the term SMART for manually operated exercise equipment. In particular, 16 Defendant Prism's 2013 digital catalog (see page 5 of Exhibit J) shows that 17 Defendant Prism sold the following additional manually operated exercise 18 equipment bearing the following newly adopted marks: SMART MAT, SMART 19 MEDICINE BALL, SMART STABILITY BALL, and SMART PLYO BOXES 20 (collectively referred to as "SMART Product Marks"). All the marks start with the 21 first term SMART followed by descriptive terms.

22 32. Plaintiff PLP's SMARTROLLER® product and Defendant Prism's 23 SMART Products Marks are sold under substantially the same name, are 24 advertised for use as fitness/exercise and therapeutic/rehabilitation equipment, are 25 for sale to the same target market (general consumers, gyms or fitness centers and 26 physical therapist or physical therapy centers), and are sold through the same 27 channels of trade (on-line, catalog sales and direct marketing to target consumers) 28 (see page 5 of Exhibit J and Exhibit A).

1 33. Defendant Prism adopted its SMART Product Marks for use prior to 2 the date of cancellation of Plaintiff's original trademark registration for the mark 3 SMARTROLLER[®], which was cancelled on November 13, 2013. Thus, 4 Defendant Prism had constructive knowledge of Plaintiff PLP's claim to exclusive 5 rights to use the mark SMARTROLLER[®] in connection with manually operated 6 exercise equipment throughout the United States at the time that Defendant Prism 7 adopted its SMART Products Marks in connection with exercise and fitness 8 equipment.

9 34. On information and belief, Defendant Prism knew or should have 10 known that its adoption of the SMARTROLLER mark and SMART Product Marks 11 was adopted during the time in which Plaintiff PLP had federal registration for the 12 mark SMARTROLLER[®].

13 35. Plaintiff PLP has not consented to, sponsored, endorsed, or approved 14 of Defendant Prism's use of the mark SMARTROLLER and/or SMART Product 15 Marks or any variations thereof in connection with manually operated exercise 16 equipment.

17 36. On information and belief, Defendant Prism's actions are willful and 18 reflect an intent to confuse consumers and profit from the goodwill and consumer 19 recognition associated with Plaintiff PLP's SMARTROLLER[®] mark.

20 37. As of the date of this Complaint, Defendant Prism continues to use 21 the mark SMARTROLLER and SMART Product Marks in connection with 22 exercise and fitness equipment, without authorization. While it appears that since 23 receiving the cease and desist letter that Defendant Prism has renamed the title of 24 the product on Amazon.com and its website to SMART FOAM ROLLER, upon 25 information and belief, based upon images of the Prism product from Prism's 26 website, the goods still bear the mark SMARTROLLER. A true and correct copy 27 of the Prism product bearing the mark SMARTROLLER as currently shown on 28 www.prismfitnessgroup.com is attached hereto as Exhibit L. Defendant Prism's

1 failure to fully comply with Plaintiff PLP's demands demonstrates a deliberate 2 intent to continue wrongfully competing with Plaintiff PLP and to willfully 3 infringe Plaintiff PLP's rights in the SMARTROLLER[®] trademark.

5
6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
7 (Federal Trademark Infringement under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125(a))

8 38. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegations contained in 9 paragraphs 1- 37 of this Complaint.

10 39. The actions of Defendant described above and specifically, without 11 limitation, its unauthorized use of the SMARTROLLER[®] trademark and the 12 SMART Product Marks, and confusingly similar variations thereof, in commerce 13 to advertise, promote, market, and sell manually operated exercise equipment 14 throughout the United States including California, constitute trademark 15 infringement in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125(a).

16 40. The actions of Defendant, if not enjoined, will continue. Plaintiff has 17 suffered and continues to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial
18 consisting of, among other things, diminution in the value of and goodwill
19 associated with the SMARTROLLER[®] mark, and injury to Plaintiff's business.
20 Plaintiff is therefore entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116.

21 41. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages 22 in an amount to be determined at trial, profits made by Defendant on sales of 23 manually operated exercise equipment bearing the SMARTROLLER[®] trademark 24 and the SMART Product Marks, and the costs of this action. Furthermore, 25 Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the actions of 26 Defendant was undertaken willfully and with the intention of causing confusion, 27 mistake, or deception, making this an exceptional case entitling Plaintiff to recover 28

1 additional treble damages and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 2 1117.

3
4 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
5 (Federal Trademark Dilution under 15 U.S.C. §1125(c))

6 42. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegations contained in 7 paragraphs 1 - 41 of this Complaint.

8 43. The actions of Defendant described above and specifically, without 9 limitation, its unauthorized use of the SMARTROLLER® mark and the SMART 10 Product Marks, and confusingly similar variations thereof, in commerce to 11 advertise, market, and sell manually operated exercise equipment throughout the 12 United States including California, are likely to cause dilution by blurring and 13 tarnishment in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

14 44. The actions of Defendant, if not enjoined, will continue. Plaintiff has 15 suffered and continues to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial
16 consisting of, among other things, diminution in the value of and goodwill
17 associated with the SMARTROLLER® mark, and injury to Plaintiff's business.
18 Plaintiff is therefore entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116 and 19 15 U.S.C. 1125(c).

20 45. On information and belief, the actions of Defendant described above 21 was and continue to be deliberate and willful. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to 22 recover damages in an amount to be determined at trial, profits made by Defendant 23 on the sales of manually operated exercise equipment bearing the 24 SMARTROLLER® trademark and the SMART Product Marks, and the costs of 25 this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.
26
27
28

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
2 (Federal Unfair Competition and False Advertising under 15 U.S.C. §1125(a))

3 46. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein the allegations contained in 4 paragraphs 1- 45 of this Complaint.

5 47. Defendant's actions described above and specifically, without 6 limitation, Defendant's use of the SMARTROLLER® trademark and the SMART 7 Product Marks, and confusingly similar variations thereof, in commerce to 8 advertise, market, and sell manually operated exercise equipment bearing the 9 SMARTROLLER mark and SMART Product Marks throughout the United States 10 including California and Defendant Prism's knowledge, participation, and 11 inducement thereof, constitute unfair competition and false advertising in violation 12 of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

13 48. As an actual and proximate result of Defendant's willful and 14 intentional actions, Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount to be determined at 15 trial, and unless Defendant is enjoined, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable 16 harm and damage to its business, reputation, and goodwill.

17 49. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, Plaintiff is entitled to damages for 18 Defendants' Lanham Act violations, an accounting for profits made by Defendant
19 on sales of manually operated exercise equipment bearing the SMARTROLLER® 20 trademark and the SMART Product Marks, as well as recovery of the costs of this 21 action. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, 22 that Defendant's conduct was undertaken willfully and with the intention of 23 causing confusion, mistake or deception, making this an exceptional case entitling 24 Plaintiff to recover additional damages and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to

Defendant's actions described above and specifically, without limitation, Defendant's use of the SMARTROLLER[®] trademark and SMART Product Marks, and confusingly similar variations thereof, in commerce to advertise, market, and manually operated exercise equipment bearing the SMARTROLLER mark and SMART Product Marks throughout the United States including California and Defendant Prism's knowledge, participation, and inducement thereof, constitute trademark infringement, false advertising, and unfair competition in violation of the laws of the State of California.

52. By these actions, Defendant has engaged in false advertising and unfair competition in violation of the statutory law of the state of California, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 and 17500, et seq., and, as a result, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer damage to its business, reputation, and goodwill.

53. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's willful and intentional actions, Plaintiff has suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial and, unless Defendant is restrained, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable damage.
